THE FAKIR AND HIS RINGS.

How He Got the Bost of the Citizen from Cartersville.

A fakir had a lot of German silver rings spread out on a little table just across the street from the depot, and was declaring in a loud voice that he would warant each one to cure rheumatism if worn on the finger for a month, when a stout-backed and determinedlooking man walked up to him and said:

next week. The people of Cartersville are crying for my rings. Who wants the next? Five different sizes and all warranted to afford permanent relief warranted to afford permanent relief to the weaters."

"I bought this 'ere ring of you down at Cartersville," continued the man, with a gleam of danger in his eye, says the Louisville Times.

"Not the slightest doubt of it, my dear sir, and I am glad to know that it has fone you a power of good. Gentlemen, it is is the last chance you may ever have to get one of these rings. Every one guaranteed as represented or money refunded. Relieves rheumatism in five minutes and works a complete cure in four weeks."

"You are a dog-goned liar," shouted the stout-backed man as he peeled off his coat.

"Gentlemen, come closer. My honor is at stake. My first impulse is to annihilate this man, but I never act on impulse. I know that he is in error. I know that I cen convince him of the fact. Later on he will beg my pardon for his rudeness. Now, then, tell this crowd what's the matter with the ring."

"It hasn't helped my rheumatism the least bit."

"It have!"

"And on your honor you have not been benefited?"

"Not a spark."

"Let me see it. Ha! gentlemen, here is the keynote to the mystery. Our firm manufactures three different sorts of these rings. There are the rheumatic ring, the consumption ring and the catarrh ring. By accident a consumption ring got mixed up with the rheumatic rings and was sold to this man without Ly detecting it. No wonder it has not helped his rheumatism. It wasn't made to, it has cured his case of consumption, however, as you can all see by his looks, and he ought to be grateful for that. Look at him, fellow-citizens, a man positively cured of that dread disease, consumption, takking because it does not also cure the rheumatism at the same time, and for the trifling matter of flifty cents."

does not also cure the rheumatism at the same time, and for the trifling matter of fifty cents!"

The crowd began to murmur, and the sout-backed man to go down into his boots, and the fakir capped the climax by shouting:

"But human nature is ever thus! I expect to meet one such man in every crowd. Here, sir-here is a catarrhring and here is a rheumatic ring-both free rifts to you. Were toem and be cured. Be cured of three awful allments for the small sum of half a dolar, and then come back and kick because our firm hasn't yet begun to manufacture an electric ring to knock out fever and ague and straighten out a pair of bow legs and grow hair on a baid head at the same time."
